

Operation Encompass

Supporting children through key adults

“It’s every child’s right.”

Operation Encompass is the early notification to education settings that police have been called to a domestic incident and the children were present or witness.

Stoke Holy Cross Primary School

